Everlasting Gobstopper award: Jandd seat bag.

I have no idea how old this seat bag is, but it has outlived so many bikes I cannot recall them all. In a world where we increasingly accept disposable goods and technology...consider ink jet printers, for example...things that are made well, do what they are supposed to do, and last a long time are a marvel, really. The other day one of the zipper pulls fell off. A bit of parachute cord will fix it right up. Other than that, nada. Good as new except for the fine patina it proudly wears.

Jandd, thanks for all the memories on bikes and rides where your bag safely kept all my stuff intact. To you I offer the Everlasting Gobstopper award.

Yeah, I got more than one page now.
